

TECHNICAL TALK BY PROF. ERIC D'ASARO ON 07TH JANUARY 2020

MTS India Section jointly with NIOT organised a lecture by Prof. Eric D'Asaro, of University of Washington who is a renowned Oceanographer and he has developed instruments for unique data collection. He has served as the elected fellow in American Geophysical Union and the American Meteorological Society. In 2014 he was elected to the National Academy of Sciences in recognition for his innovative observations from the Ocean.

He delivered his talk on “Air-Sea Heat Flux, SST and Monsoon Oscillations” between 3 and 4 PM at NIOT Campus, Chennai on 07th January 2020 . This talk was well attended by Scientists Scholars and Students.

Report by MTS India Section